Code of Conduct

TL;DR. Be respectful. Harassment and abuse are never tolerated. If you are in a situation that makes you uncomfortable , if the event/workshop/meeting itself is creating an unsafe or inappropriate environment, or if interacting with a representative or organizer makes you uncomfortable, please report it using the procedures included in this document.

We Stand for inclusivity. We believe that every single person has the right to participate in a safe and welcoming environment.Harassment includes but is not limited to offensive verbal or written comments related to gender, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, religion,social class, economic status, veteran status, sexual images, deliberate intimidation,stalking,following, harassing photography or recording, sustained disruption of talks or other events, inappropriate physical contact, and unwelcome sexual attention. If what you're doing is making someone feel uncomfortable, that counts as harassment and is enough reason to stop doing it.

Participants asked to stop any harassing behavior are expected to comply immediately.Sponsors, judges, mentors, volunteers, organizers, staff, and anyone else at the event are also subject to the anti-harassment policy. In particular, participants/staff/organizers should not use sexualised images, activities, or other material during meetings or any activity related to codecell . Event Booth staff (including volunteers) should not use sexualised clothing/uniforms/costumes,or otherwise create a sexualised environment.If a participant engages in harassing behavior, We may take any action it deems appropriate, including warning the offender or expulsion from codecell including strict disciplinary legal action where deemed fit with no eligibility for reimbursement or refund of any type.If you are being harassed, notice that someone else is being harassed, or have any other concerns, please contact us using the reporting procedures defined below.

Appointed representatives will be happy to help participants contact campus staff, provide escorts, or otherwise assist those experiencing harassment to feel safe. We value your participation .We expect participants to follow these rules at all hackathon venues, online interactions in relation to the events/workshops,Codecell-related social events, and on Codecell supplied transportation. Reporting Procedures If you feel uncomfortable or think there may be a potential violation of the code of conduct,please report it immediately to one of the faculty/teaching staff. All reporters have the right to remain anonymous. Codecell reserves the right to revise, make exceptions to, or otherwise amend these policies in whole or in part.If you have any questions regarding these policies, please contact prashant.kanade@ves.ac.in
